Reception: 11:30 a.m. - noon • Presentation: noon - 1:30 p.m.

Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce

1601 Biscayne Blvd, Ballroom Level, Ray Goode Rider Conference Room
Miami, FL 33132

Come discuss how the greater community, from business and gaming industry stakeholders to community mental health and nonprofit leaders, can collaborate to address responsible gaming across the state of Florida.

The National Center for Responsible Gaming (NCRG) and the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce invite you to a special lunch to network and learn more about the NCRG's role in funding groundbreaking research and advancing public education about gambling disorders and responsible gaming. The NCRG is the only national organization devoted to funding research on gambling disorders and works to develop science-based resources about gambling disorders and responsible gaming. The lunch will include presentations by:

- Alan Feldman, NCRG chairman and senior vice president of public affairs for MGM Resorts International
- Ken Winters, Ph.D., NCRG Scientific Advisory Board member, professor of psychiatry and director of the Center for Adolescent Substance Abuse and Research, University of Minnesota

This lunch is also an opportunity to network with those in Florida government and health programs, legislators, gaming industry executives and the greater business community who strive to bring public health issues to the forefront.

Please RSVP by April 26 to Amy Martin at amartin@ncrg.org and (202) 552-2689.
